THE CANDIDATES.—Yesterday an arrangement was made by the two Central Committees to meet Messrs. Kendal and Goodwin on the road and bring them into town in a private conveyance. Accordingly Messrs. Curtis and Bishop seated in a handsome barouche drawn by four fine horses went out to meet the candidates. Meeting that vehicle the candidates took their seats in the barouche and sped towards town, which they entered preceded by a brass band, and escorted by a number of horsemen. After parading through Main street the tired and dusty travellers retired to the rooms prepared for them.

BRUTAL.—We are not very well posted in mule nature, but it really would seem to an outsider, that belaboring a mule until it can hardly stand, is not calculated to ensure the good behavior or good health of team animals. Yesterday in Main street we saw a teamster beating his mules with the butt end of his blacksnake whip, with brutal severity. May be that mules appreciate and will obey no other treatment, but it looked to us a very unnecessary exhibition of brutality, more the effect of passion than anything else.

BISHOP BROS. have just received a large and fine assortment of Perfumery, Toilet and Fancy Articles, such as Florida Water, Pomades, Hair Oil, Cold Cream, Creme de la, Laird's Bloom of Youth, Bazin's Tooth Paste, Steinberger's Glycerine, Honey and Elder Flower Soap, Lubin's Soaps, etc., etc., etc., which, together with a full stock of Chemicals and Medicines, are selling at the lowest market prices.

IN ALL CASES, of whatever nature, Dr. D. H. Whippley guarantees a sure cure. In cases of venereal diseases, piles of long standing, chronic diseases, etc., a cure is effected without the use of mercury. He cures piles in a short space of time. Consultation strictly confidential. Office at Mrs. Pyles's Lodging House, Room No. 5.

An Eastern correspondent asserts that Smith, the associate of Jay Gould in the New York swindling operations, is the owner of the two trotting horses, Goldsmith Maid and Lucy, but affects to own but one of them, so that they are matched for trots on all the great tracks of the country and their races can be sold either way.

Near Georgetown, Cal., a man named Madden shot at and fatally wounded Wm. Ganong. After shooting Ganong he tried to kill young Hubey, a boy who was with Ganong and the only witness, and the boy only escaped by the fleetness of his mule. Ganong was about sixty years old and much respected.
